

I listen to K-love all day at home, in my car and at work and extremely enjoy listening to the music. It would be a great loss to the community if we could no longer have K-love on the air. K-love is a wonderful service to the public because it is safe listening for our families and we can play it at work also. Thanks